

The Light at the End of the Shildon Tunnel

Dave Reynolds - Shildon Institute Singers

$\text{♩} = 140$
7 mp

There's more to our soul than the rust and spent coal, that Each day that ar - rives sim - ply fol - lows the last, each

13 mp

lies in the wake of our tread._____ How our lost in - dus - try made it chal - lenge leads on to the next._____ But we'll ne - ver be damned to a 19

so hard to see, good times could be wai - ting - _____ Good times could be life with - out hope, and always be eq - ua - lly _____ We'll al - ways be

26

wai - ting - a - head. _____ Sure we miss the old days when our grand - fa thers eq - ua - lly blessed._____ For a wise man once said we all make our own

32 mp

said, there was nought for them any where else,_____ Did the cam - ra - de luck, it's a key that un - locks ev - ery curse,_____ Ma - ay all the re -

38

rie that we all used to feel be - come ev' - ry man for them selves._____ If solve th - at runs through this town en - suring 'll ne - ver be worse._____ For 45 mf

there is a light at the end of the Shil - don tun - nel then let it be said._____
there is a light at the end of the Shil - don tun - nel I have heard it said._____

52

_____ That we'll walk to - wards it un a - fraid and by it be ea - ger - ly led._____
_____ So we'll walk to - ward it un a - fraid and by it be ea - ger - ly led._____

60 f

_____ For the times _____ of our lives _____ could be wai _____ ting a head,_____
_____ For the times _____ of our lives _____ are still wai _____ ting a - head,_____

Alto

68

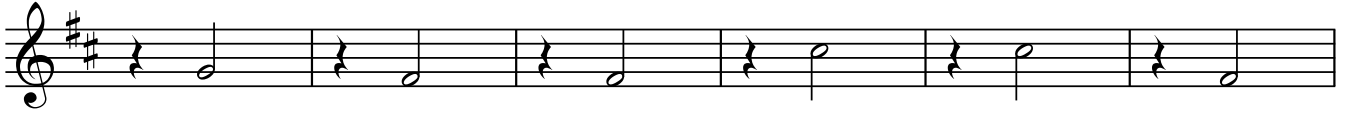

What's behind still remains and we'll always know who we What's behind still remains and we'll always know who we

77

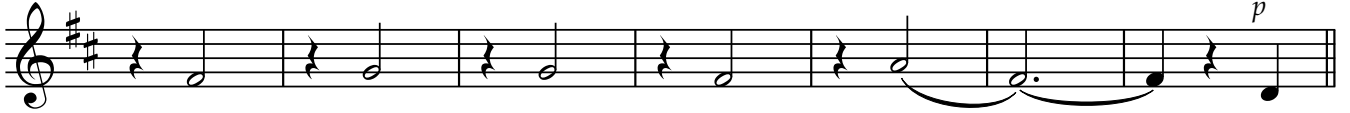

are. Baa baa baa
are.

85

baa baa baa baa baa baa

91

baa baa baa baa baa - hey. For all that's unfolded our story's not told, it begins on the very next page.

98

105

and the words we will read will remind you and me, that good times are

111

wai-ting a - head Oh, those good times are wai-ting a - head. Yeah, those good times are wai - ting a - head. a - he - 123

118

ead a - he - ea - ea - ad.